

6. step the optimizer

The optimizer uses the gradients computed during the backward pass to adjust the model's parameters (weights and biases). The specific update rule (e.g., in SGD, Adam, etc.) is determined by the chosen optimization algorithm and the specified learning rate.