

FLOPs and FLOPS

FLOPs = Floating point operations = it is a common metric used to measure the computational complexity or mathematical calculation to generate each input of the machine learning model.

FLOPS = Floating point operation per second = It is a measurement metric used to indicate the hardware performance of processor like GPU used to train and run the AI model. = Hardware benchmarking