

Hidden state

Hidden state is the internal vector representation that stores information about the input processed so far.

$$H = [h_1, h_2, \dots, h_T]$$

Each h_i is a hidden state representing token i with context from the whole sequence.